

Do not call is a Wonderful Concept. Please don't emasculate it with politically contrived exceptions and time limits. I am especially concerned about this in regards to New Jersey's Law - leave it alone. You should be protecting the consumers, not the business's. Since you disagree then in fairness you should publish the home telephone numbers of all officers and management personnel of any company that calls any residence to solicit donations or business.